

Philippine National Police Director Admits To Smoking Cannabis. Says It Made Him Feel Like Listening To & Singing Folk Music

Every now and then we have to have a Friday story on a Monday..

PHILIPPINE National Police (PNP) Director General Ronald Dela Rosa on Friday, October 6, admitted to using illegal drug weed twice during college.

The PNP chief, however, said he does not recommend anyone to use the prohibited drug. Dela Rosa said the experience was during his days at the Mindanao State University. "The effect to me when I tried marijuana was having a feeling of (being) high, having red eyes and wanting to listen and sing folk songs due to its good vibes," Dela Rosa said. The confession came at the heels of queries on the possibility of legalizing marijuana for medical purposes. "I leave it to the congress on how they will determine the use of medical marijuana but for us law enforcers, we will have to abide by what congress will formulate."
